Numb. 15081.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 17, to Tuesday November 20, 1798.

Weſtminſter, November 20, 1798.

THIS Day His Majeſty came to the Houſe of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from His Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE Events which have taken place in the Courſe of the preſent Year, and the ſignal Succeſs which, by the Bleſſing of Providence, has attended My Arms, have been productive of the happieſt Conſequences, and have eſſentially promoted the Proſperity and Glory of Our Country.

The unexampled Series of Our Naval Triumphs has received freſh Splendor from the memorable and deciſive Action in which a Detachment of My Fleet, under the Command of Rear-Admiral Lord Nelſon, attacked and almoſt totally deſtroyed a ſuperior Force of the Enemy, ſtrengthened by every Advantage of Situation: By this great and brilliant Victory, an Enterpriſe of which the Injuſtice, Perfidy, and Extravagance, had fixed the Attention of the World, and which was peculiarly directed againſt ſome of the moſt valuable Intereſts of the Britiſh Empire, has, in the firſt Inſtance, been turned to the Confuſion of its Authors; and the Blow thus given to the Power and Influence of France has afforded an Opening which, if improved by ſuitable Exertions on the Part of other Powers, may lead to the general Deliverance of Europe.

The Wiſdom and Magnanimity ſo eminently diſplayed at this Conjuncture by the Emperor of Ruſſia, and the Deciſion and Vigour of the Ottoman Porte, have ſhewn that thoſe Powers are impreſſed with a juſt Senſe of the preſent Criſis; and their Example, joined to the Diſpoſition manifeſted almoſt univerſally in the different Countries ſtruggling under the Yoke of France, muſt be a powerful Encouragement to other States to adopt that vigorous Line of Conduct, which Experience has proved to be alone conſiſtent with Security or Honor.

The Extent of Our Preparations at Home, and the Demonſtrations of Zeal and Spirit among all Ranks of My Subjects, have deterred the Enemy from attempting to execute their vain Threat of invading the Coaſts of this Kingdom.

In Ireland, the Rebellion which they had inſtigated has been curbed and repreſſed; the Troops which they landed for its Support have been compelled to ſurrender; and the Armaments ſince deſtined for the ſame Purpoſe have, by the Vigilance and Activity of My Squadrons, been captured or diſperſed. The Views and Principles of thoſe who, in Concert with Our inveterate Enemy, have long planned the Subverſion of Our Conſtitution, have been fully detected and expoſed, and their Treaſons made manifeſt to the World. Thoſe whom they had miſled or ſeduced muſt now be awakened to their Duty; and a juſt Senſe of the Miſeries and Horrors which theſe traitorous Deſigns have produced, muſt impreſs on the Minds of all My faithful Subjects the Neceſſity of continuing to repel with Firmneſs every Attack on the Laws and eſtabliſhed Government of their Country.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

Under the unavoidable Preſſure of protracted War, it is a great Satisfaction to Me to obſerve, that the Produce of the Publick Revenue has proved fully adequate to the Increaſe of Our permanent Expenditure; that the National Credit has been maintained and improved; and that the Commerce and Induſtry of My Subjects have continued to flouriſh in a Degree hitherto unknown.

The Situation in which We are placed, unhappily renders the Continuance of heavy Expences indiſpenſable for the Publick Safety. But the State o

Our Reſources, and the good Senſe and Publick Spirit which prevail through every Part of My Kingdom, will, I truſt, enable you to provide the neceſſary Supplies without eſſential Inconvenience to My People, and with as little Addition as poſſible to the permanent Burdens of the State. The Progreſs made towards ſuch a Syſtem by the Meaſures adopted in the laſt Seſſion, and the Aid given to Publick Credit by the Plan for the Redemption of the Land Tax, have been attended with the moſt beneficial Effects, which you will, I am perſuaded, omit no Opportunity to confirm and improve.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I rely with Confidence on the Continuance of your Exertions to enable Me ultimately to conduct the great Conteſt in which We are engaged to a ſafe and honorable Concluſion.

We have ſurmounted many and great Difficulties. Our Perſeverance in a juſt Cauſe has been rewarded with diſtinguiſhed Succeſs; and Our preſent Situation, compared with that of other Countries, ſufficiently proves how much, in a Period of general Danger and Calamity, the Security and Happineſs of the Britiſh Nation have depended (under the Bleſſing of Providence) on its own Conſtancy, its Energy, and its Virtue.

Downing-Street, Nov. 20, 1798.

A Decree having been publiſhed by the French Directory, declaring, that all Perſons Natives of, or originally belonging to Neutral Countries or Countries in Alliance with France, who may form a Part of the Crews of any of the King's Ships of War, or any other Britiſh Veſſels, ſhall be conſidered and treated as Pirates; His Majeſty has directed it to be ſignified to the Commiſſary for the French Priſoners in Great Britain, that if this Decree ſhall, in any Inſtance, be carried into Effect againſt any ſuch Perſons taken in any Veſſels the Property of His Majeſty, or of His Majeſty's Subjects, and navigated under the Britiſh Flag, it is His Majeſty's Determination to exerciſe the moſt vigorous Retaliation againſt the Subjects of the French Republic, whom the Chance of War has now placed, or may hereafter place, at the King's Diſpoſal.

Admiralty-Office, November 20, 1798.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Sir John Borlaſe Warren, K. B. to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated on board the Canada, Plymouth-Dock, 18th November, 1798.

SIR,

I Have been waiting with great Anxiety the Arrival of the Robuſt and La Hoche at this Port to enable me to make a Return of the Killed and Wounded in the different Ships under my Orders upon the 12th October laſt; but, as I underſtand thoſe Ships may be ſtill further detained by Repairs at Lough Swilly, I ſend the incloſed, which it was impoſſible for me to obtain before the preſent Moment, as the whole Squadron was ſeparated in Chace of the flying Enemy, and have ſucceſſively arrived at this Port; it was impracticable, therefore, to communicate the Particulars to their Lordſhips ſooner, or to ſtate the very gallant Conduct of Captains Thornbrough and De Courcy, in the Robuſt and Magnanime, who, from their Poſition in the Van on that Day, were enabled to cloſe with the Enemy early in the Action, and were zealouſly and bravely ſeconded by every other Ship of the Squadron, as well as by the Intrepidity diſplayed by the Anſon in the Evening, in obeying my Signal to haraſs the Enemy, and in beating off their Frigates.

For further Particulars I refer their Lordſhips to the Letters they may have received from Captains Counteſs and Moore of the Ethalion and Melampus.

I am happy in reflecting that ſo many Advantages to His Majeſty's Arms have been purchaſed with ſo inconſiderable a Loſs in the Ships of the Squadron.

I have the Honor to remain, Sir,
Your moſt obedient humble Servant,
JOHN WARREN.

A Return of the Killed and Wounded on board the Squadron of His Majeſty's Ships under the Orders of Sir John Borlaſe Warren, Bart. K. B. in the Action with a Squadron of French Ships, on the 12th October, 1798.

Whitehall, November 12, 1798

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that about Half paſt Six o'Clock in the Evening of Tueſday the 6th Inſtant, George Edmund Shuttleworth, Son of John Shuttleworth, of Sun-Tavern Fields, in the County of Middleſex, Eſq; was forcibly ſeized by Two or more Men in Back-Lane, near the Turnpike-Gate, in the Pariſh of St. George in the Eaſt, who, after having blindfolded and gagged him, dragged him to a Place called Botany-Bay, near the New Road, where with the moſt horrid Imprecations they forced him into a Hackney-Coach, threatening to blow out his Brains if he made the leaſt Noiſe or Reſiſtance; that One of the Men got into the Coach with him the ſaid George Edmund Shuttleworth, and that the other, as he imagines, rode upon the Box with the Coachman: that after having gone on a conſiderable Time, the Coach ſtopt, as it is ſuppoſed, in or near Chick-Lane, now called Weſt-Street, Weſt Smithfield, from whence the ſaid George Edmund Shuttleworth was conducted through ſome Alleys or Paſſages, and put into a private Room, ſet upon a Chair, and informed, that if he ſtirred, made the leaſt Noiſe, or attempted to take the Bandage from his Eyes, or the Gag from his Mouth, he would be done for: that after keeping him in this Situation for Forty-eight Hours without any Suſtenance, except a ſmall Piece of Bread, and taking from him all his Money, (except Three Shillings,) they conveyed him through ſeveral Windings into Weſt-Smithfield aforeſaid, where they diſengaged him the ſaid George Edmund Shuttleworth, ſaying "he might go and be damned, for he was "not the Perſon they wanted:"

His Majeſty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the atrocious Felony abovementioned, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any One of them who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein; ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. PORTLAND.

And as a further Encouragement the Sum of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by me, John Shuttleworth.

Admiralty-Office, October 19, 1798.
